Anti-slavery and human trafficking policy

We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to ensure modern slavery is not taking place anywhere in our own business, or in any of our supply chains.

We are also committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our business relationships, consistent under the Modern Slavery Act 2015.

We expect high standards from all our subcontractors, suppliers and other business partners and have made this a contractual term in our agreements with significant suppliers wherever possible.

The management of the firm has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with our legal and ethical obligations, and that all of our people comply with it.

The prevention, detection and reporting of modern slavery in any part of our business or supply chains is the responsibility of all those working for us or under our control.

We encourage openness and will support anyone who raises genuine concerns in good faith in accordance with the firm's whistleblowing policy. We are committed to ensuring no one suffers any detrimental treatment as a result of reporting in good faith their knowledge, or suspicion, that modern slavery is taking place in any part of our business or in any of our supply chains.
